

Lakewood. Of course, there will be plenty of guitars to get an impression about the models and the whole range in case you are not yet familiar with Lakewood. Additionally, there's going to be a special guest on Sunday at 3pm in the Acoustic Café and also right at the Lakewood exhibition stand: Singer songwriter Jade Gallagher will perform her original songs as well as terrific interpretations of known songs.

On Saturday we will have the pleasure of hosting Gabor Lesko at our stand. The Italian singer and songwriter will also perform his original songs and is happy to meet up with everybody who's interested in his music or Lakewood guitars.

The London Acoustic Guitar Show 2011 will be a tremendous event for anyone who has a passion for the acoustic guitar. Held at the prestigious London Olympia, this new show will take place on September 10 and 11.

In addition to the exhibition, the show will include a 300 capacity educational room with clinics and workshops provided by leading players, plus live performances from international artists in the 450 capacity live stage auditorium.

The organizers set themselves a high aspiration: A show with the sole mission of being the greatest live advocate of the acoustic guitar and its music in the UK.
